

ROCKY MOUNTAIN WATER SKI CLUB RULES

1. Skier rotation for Club Participants is based on time of arrival. After a complete rotation, the next arrival skis. Any skier not prepared for his or her turn will lose their turn if others are waiting to ski.
2. Participants must always be present with Guests. Participants may have no more than two Guests with them at the Club facilities at any time. No Guest may use the Club facilities more than five times per calendar year. Guests of Participants may ski when no Participants are waiting to ski. All guests, including parents on behalf of minors, must sign a Liability Release upon arrival at the Club facilities. Guests only need sign one waiver per ski season. If Club Participants fail to have their guests sign liability releases, Participants are subject to fines and/or suspension.
3. Boat drivers must be a minimum of 16 years of age and must have the knowledge and ability to safely drive the boat and obey all safety rules. Drivers between ages 16 and 18 years old may only drive if their adult supervisor is present and such drivers are the responsibility of the adult authorizing them to drive. The authorizing adult is solely responsible for any damage caused by or resulting from the minor operating the boat.
4. Guests of Club Participants may only drive boats with the express permission of the Club, and the authorizing Participant is solely responsible for any damage caused by or resulting from the guest operating the boat.
5. There is a six pass limit per slalom set, four pass limit for jumps and a fifteen minute limit for trick or wakeboards. No ski run shall exceed fifteen minutes.
6. AWSA membership is required for all Club Participants.
7. Please close gate behind you, and DON'T BE PIGS!!
